JOB SUMMARY

This is a full time post in the Fundraising Team at University Hospitals Birmingham Charity (‘UHB Charity’), the official NHS Charity for the four hospitals of University Hospitals Birmingham NHS Foundation Trust - Queen Elizabeth Hospital Birmingham, Heartlands Hospital, Good Hope Hospital and Solihull Hospital.

UHB Charity is dedicated to improving the experience of patients, their families and the staff who care for them.

The Charity raises funds to support patients of the four hospitals by providing new and innovative equipment, funding research and supporting patient and family welfare projects.

The Queen Elizabeth Hospital Birmingham in particular has a world class reputation, and specialises in cancer treatment, organ transplantations and trauma care. It is also home of the Royal Centre for Defence Medicine, where the UK's military patients are treated.

Heartlands Hospital has a specialist neo-natal unit and very busy children's and maternity units.

Good Hope Hospital and Solihull Hospital serve the towns of Sutton Coldfield and Solihull.

The post offers the opportunity for office working at any of our four hospital sites with the opportunity for some home working as suits the job holder and line manager.

The Fundraising Assistant – The Giles' Trust will work closely with other members of the hospital charity, providing support to the fundraising team and the Charity overall.

The post holder will also be the main day to day contact for all fundraising enquiries relating to the Charity's brain tumour fundraising under the banner of The Giles' Trust.

Working as part of a team the post holder will have specific responsibility for accurate data inputting of donations, fundraising and Gift Aid claims and correspondence with donors and fundraisers.

The post holder will also learn how to organise and run events put on by the charity and its supporters. This role will involve evening and weekend work at charity events as and when necessary.

The post is suitable for someone who wishes to start a career in fundraising, or who has experienced fundraising in a voluntary capacity.

PRINCIPAL DUTIES

- Support various projects that are designed to increase the impact and effectiveness of The Giles' Trust fundraising programme.
- To drive and increase income from businesses, business network groups, community groups and individuals to advance the Charity's fundraising ambitions both individually and as part of a wider fundraising team.
- Support individual fundraisers and donors who have the potential to generate income for the Charity.
- Provide excellent stewardship to key supporters and senior volunteers and build strong relationships with potential new supporters.
- Build excellent relationships with key clinical colleagues to ensure the different wards and departments are working effectively with the charity
- Proactively use the fundraising database to develop and manage supporter relationships.
- To proactively contribute to the achievement of targets and the ongoing fundraising success of the Charity as a whole and to be a supportive, effective and integrated team member.
- Create a sustainable fundraising pipeline for The Giles' Trust and to ensure that income grows and continues to be a strong element of our voluntary income.

- Engage in other areas of fundraising where there are opportunities to meet supporters and/or volunteers to help promote The Giles' Trust giving and build relationships.
- Providing support to the fundraising team with specific responsibility for accurate data inputting of donations, fundraising, Gift Aid claims and correspondence both written and verbal with donors and fundraising.
- Organising fundraising events put on by the charity and its supporters. Booking venues, producing publicity material, ensuring events comply with all legal and financial controls.
- Typing and processing of correspondence, reports and other documents as requested a daily basis with packages to include Microsoft Office i.e. Word, Excel Outlook, Access and PowerPoint, and donor database Raiser's Edge.
- Photocopying, distribution and dispatch, faxing and other administrative duties as appropriate.
- Organising, attending and minuting meetings and conferences, to include booking rooms and refreshments and liaison with attendees.

- Collecting donations from across the hospital and meeting donors and fundraisers who come to the hospital.
- Banking donations and issuing receipts.
- Managing and prioritising unpredictable and frequently interrupted busy workload.

COMMUNICATION

- Relaying accurate and timely information to the fundraising team, the Charity Chief Executive and Charity Trustees on a regular basis. Communicating with clinical and non clinical staff within the hospital. Communicating with donors and fundraisers.
- Dealing with enquiries from the general public, disseminating information and ensuring that the appropriate action is taken, whilst maintaining the Charity's policies and procedures

ORGANISATIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES

- Maintaining Raiser's Edge donor management system. Accurate data inputting of donations, fundraising, Gift Aid declarations, thank you letters and general archiving, production and upkeep of databases.
- Recording fundraising activity for other members of the team, including amounts raised and events attended.
- To organise with the rest of the team and charity manning levels of the office to ensure a continual service to the public.
- Monitoring and managing stock levels of fundraising materials.

PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES

- Ability to present oneself in a professional manner as a representative of the hospital and the charity.
- To maintain confidentiality in all aspects of duty including fundraiser and donor data.
- To assist in maintaining accurate records and to complete and return as requested statistical data.
- To maintain an accurate effective database, recording essential information and providing statistical data in accordance with guidelines and policy using Raiser's Edge, Microsoft Office, Word and Access.

MISCELLANEOUS

- to represent the Charity in a variety of different contexts and to a variety of different audiences.
- to ensure that a positive image of the hospital and the Charity is projected at all times.
- to hold a flexible approach to working hours (the role will require the post holder to work evenings and weekends as necessary).
- to hold a flexible approach to work when asked to take on other fundraising or admin duties when the team needs to cover holidays, or at times of workload pressure.
- to adopt a supportive and collegiate approach when working with the fundraising team and other colleagues within the hospital.

The Fundraising Assistant will also carry out other projects and duties as directed by the Fundraising Manager and Charity Chief Executive.

NOTES:

This is not intended to be an exhaustive list of responsibilities but more an outline framework against which the post holder will be given flexibility to define the detail. Any changes will be the subject of consultation with the post holder.

All employees must adhere to and perpetuate Charity Policies and Procedures relating to:
