JOB SUMMARY

This is a full time post providing support to the Grants function at University Hospitals Birmingham Charity ('UHB Charity'), the official NHS Charity for the four hospitals of University Hospitals Birmingham NHS Foundation Trust - Queen Elizabeth Hospital Birmingham, Heartlands Hospital, Good Hope Hospital and Solihull Hospital.

UHB Charity is dedicated to improving the experience of patients, their families and the staff who care for them.

The Charity raises funds to support patients of the four hospitals by providing new and innovative equipment, funding research and supporting patient and family welfare projects.

The Queen Elizabeth Hospital Birmingham in particular has a world class reputation, and specialises in cancer treatment, organ transplantations and trauma care. It is also home of the Royal Centre for Defence Medicine, where the UK's military patients are treated.

Heartlands Hospital has a specialist neo-natal unit and very busy children's and maternity units.

Good Hope Hospital and Solihull Hospital serve the towns of Sutton Coldfield and Solihull.

The post offers flexible working from home and the opportunity for office working at any of our four hospital sites as suits the job holder and line manager.

The Grants Assistant will work closely with other members of the hospital charity, in particular the Office Manager and Charity Chief Executive, to efficiently administer the grant making programme for the hospital charity.

Working as part of a team the post holder will have specific responsibility for accurate inputting of charitable orders, checking suitability of grant requests, correspondence with suppliers and procurement teams.

The post holder will also learn how the Charity proactively seeks feedback on its grant programme, and will be actively involved in sending out and obtaining grant review forms and passing on interesting case studies to the Charity's communications team.

Working as part of a team the post holder will also be involved in accurate data inputting of donations, fundraising and Gift Aid claims and correspondence with donors and fundraisers.

This role would suit someone looking to gain experience in a grant making organisation.

PRINCIPAL DUTIES

- Providing secretarial and administrative support to the Grants function of the hospital charity with specific responsibility for accurate inputting of charitable orders, checking the suitability of grant requests and correspondence both written and verbal with suppliers and procurement teams.
- To liaise with all levels of hospital staff on charitable issues, including consultants, directors and nursing staff
- To ensure compliance with charitable law & regulations and hospital procurement in ordering items purchased with charitable funds
- Typing and processing of correspondence, reports and other documents as requested a daily basis with packages to include Microsoft Office i.e. Word, Excel Outlook, Access and PowerPoint, and donor database Raiser's Edge.
- Photocopying, distribution and dispatch, faxing and other administrative duties as appropriate.
- Managing and prioritising unpredictable and frequently interrupted busy workload.
- To work with and deliver clear objectives and key performance indicators.
- To proactively contribute to the achievement of targets and the ongoing fundraising success of the Charity as a whole and to be a supportive, effective and collegiate team member.

- Supporting fundraising events put on by the charity and its supporters by attending and assisting the fundraising team as and when required.

COMMUNICATION

- Relaying accurate and timely information to the fundraising team, the Charity Chief Executive and Charity Trustees on a regular basis. Communicating with clinical and non clinical staff within the hospital. Communicating with donors and fundraisers.
- Dealing with enquiries from the general public, disseminating information and ensuring that the appropriate action is taken, whilst maintaining the Charity's policies and procedures

ORGANISATIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES

- Maintaining procurement systems. Accurate inputting of charitable orders. Receipting of goods received. Production and upkeep of grant databases.
- To organise with the rest of the team and charity manning levels of the offices to ensure a continual service to the public.
- Monitoring and managing stock levels of fundraising materials.

PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES

- Ability to present oneself in a professional manner as a representative of the hospital and the charity.
- To maintain confidentiality in all aspects of duty including fundraiser and donor data.
- To assist in maintaining accurate records and to complete and return as requested statistical data.
- To maintain an accurate effective database, recording essential information and providing statistical data in accordance with guidelines and policy using Raiser's Edge, Microsoft Office, Word and Access.

MISCELLANEOUS

- To represent the Charity in a variety of different contexts and to a variety of different audiences.
- To ensure that a positive image of the hospital and the Charity is projected at all times.
- To hold a flexible approach to work when asked to take on other fundraising or admin duties when the team needs to cover holidays, or at times of workload pressure.
- To adopt a supportive and collegiate approach when working with the fundraising team and other colleagues within the hospital.

The Grants Assistant will also carry out other projects and duties as directed by the Office Manager and Charity Chief Executive.

NOTES:

This is not intended to be an exhaustive list of responsibilities but more an outline framework against which the post holder will be given flexibility to define the detail. Any changes will be the subject of consultation with the post holder.

All employees must adhere to and perpetuate Charity Policies and Procedures relating to:

- Health and Safety
- No Smoking at Work
- Equal Opportunities in Employment, including responsibilities under the Disability Discrimination Act.

Your attention is drawn to the confidential nature of information collected within the NHS. The unauthorised use or disclosure of patient or other personal information is a dismissible offence and in the case of computerised information could result in a prosecution for an offence or action for civil damages under the Data Protection Act 1984.

Please note that employees are employed directly by the Charity and not the NHS.

Employees do not have access to the NHS Pension Scheme.

Employees of the Charity are eligible to join a defined contribution pension scheme, to which the Charity will contribute 8% of an employee's annual salary in addition to employee contributions.

Employees of the Charity are eligible for enhanced maternity and sickness pay.
